Father's Day Homemade Paperweight

I think every Dad needs a paperweight on his desk don't you think? Make this precious keepsake for your Dad this Father's Day and I guarantee you he will cherish it!

The first step is to find a suitable rock. You need to try and find some smooth, flat decorative rocks. Be sure to put old clothes on the kids because acrylic paint does not wash out. You will have to put 2 or 3 coats of paint on the rocks but it only takes a few minutes for paint to dry.

You Need:

- Rock
- Acrylic Paints
- Fine Black Marker
- Paint Brush
- Optional: Glitter glue, wiggly eyes

How to make it:

- Paint the rock as you like. Be creative. Put 2 or 3 coats of paint on your rock.
- Once the paint is dry you can decorate with glitter glue, wiggly eyes or whatever you can dream up.
- Print the words (I Love Dad, Dad Rocks, Worlds Best Dad, etc.) on the rock with a fine black marker.

Trophy for Dad

Is your dad worthy of an award? Of course he is! Make your dad this shiny, gold trophy for Father's Day.

You Need:

- 2 foam coffee cups
- 5 inch square box (or one cut to size)
- Masking tape
- 1 gold chenille stem
- Gold craft paint
- Black construction paper, cut to fit on side of box
- White paint pen
- Scissors
- Paintbrush
- White craft glue

How to make it:

- Turn cups upside down and trim bottom lips to make them flush. (See photo.)
- Glue the bottom of the two cups together.
- Tape the square box shut by covering the entire box with masking tape.
- When the glue on the cups have dried, wrap a piece of masking tape around the middle where the two cups meet.
- Cut the chenille stem in half and insert into each side of one of the cups as trophy handles.
- Cover cups completely with masking tape.
- Paint masking tape on both the trophy and box gold. Let dry.
- Write "Awarded World's Best Dad" on black construction paper with white paint pen. Glue to the front of the box.
- Pipe white glue onto the bottom of the cup that does not have the chenille handles. Press onto the top of the box and let glue dry completely.

Fill the trophy cup with dad's favorite candy!!
