Mission:

Together, we the men of _____ well help Our Church and those we reach in our community with a credible offer of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, encourage them to Pursue God and equip them for spiritual service in the home, church workplace, community, and the world.

Vision:

_____ Men’s Ministry has the vision of teaching men that a man is not hard, tough, macho, womanizing or egotistical. Rather, he is a warrior, a mentor, a friend and a priest. His goal is to be like Christ. He is a builder, nurturer, instructor, provider and protector. He desires God above all relationships and will not compromise or turn in the face of adversity.
